

Volunteers with learning difficulties needed

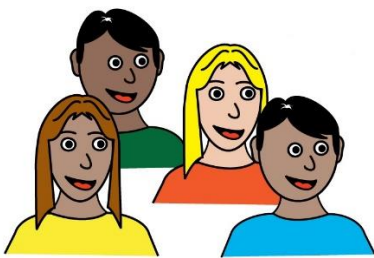

Do you think people with learning difficulties could have better social lives?

Do you want to help us make that happen?

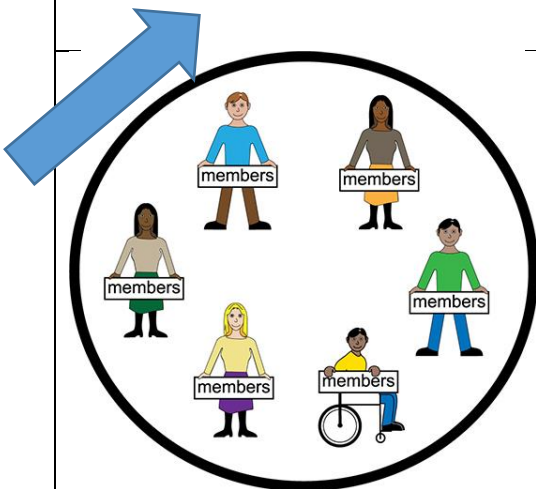

We are looking for people with learning difficulties to be part of a group.

We will be working to improve the social lives of people with learning difficulties in Leeds

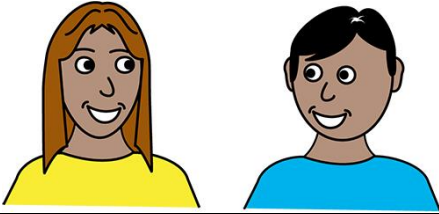

You need to be free on Tuesdays

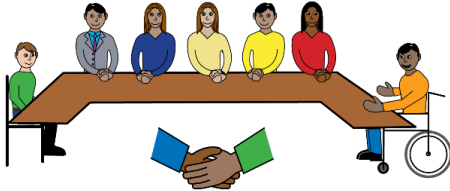

Who will be on the group ?

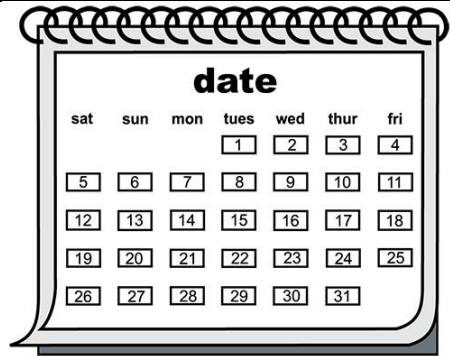

- People with learning difficulties
- Family Carers
- People who pay for services for people with learning difficulties
- People who provide services for people with learning difficulties.

The job of the Task Group is to do things that help people with learning difficulties in Leeds have good social lives.

The group will report to the Learning Disability Partnership Board

How often will the group meet?

The group will meet 4 times a year on a Tuesday
