

Learning Disability Lead

Hello my name is Lisa Smith

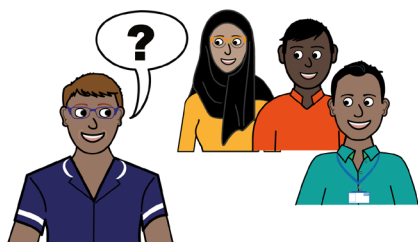

I help people with learning disabilities receive good quality care.

I provide support and advice to staff, about people with a Learning Disability.

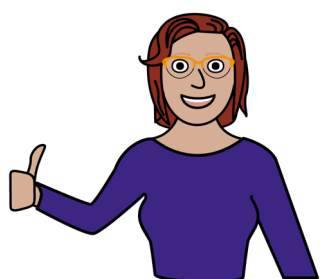

I can offer advice and support during meetings.

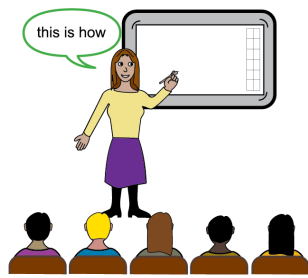

I can give advice to staff regarding people's behaviour.

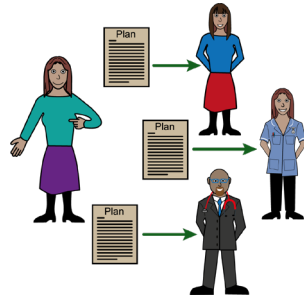

I can provide support to the person and their family/carers as needed.

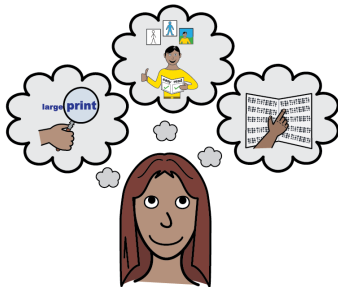

I can lead and advise on projects that will improve care for people with a Learning Disability.

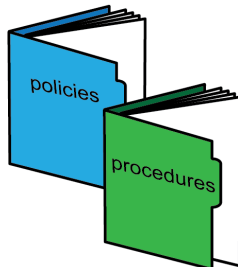

I can provide training on the needs of people with a Learning Disability

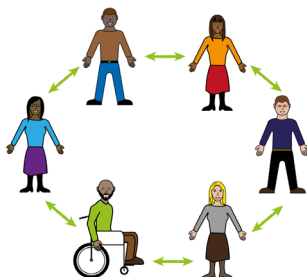

I can give support about reasonable adjustments.

I can give support with accessible information for those with a Learning Disability.

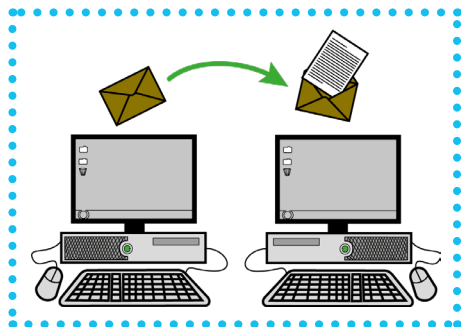

I can advise on policies and processes.

I can work across organisations.

I can help signpost to other professionals / organisations.

Contact: Lisa Smith
lisa.smith31@nhs.net